Independent Family Stay at Lamp Liter Inn

Hotels are places we stay at when we go on trips.

On this trip, we will be staying at the Lamp Liter Inn in Visalia, California.

The Lamp Liter Inn is a Certified Autism Center.

It also recognizes the Hidden Disabilities
Sunflower Program.

By utilizing the Hidden Disabilities Sunflower Program, you can discreetly let hotel, attraction and restaurant staff know that you or someone you are traveling with has a hidden disability.

Additional accommodations may include:

- Expedited hotel check-in or restaurant seating when possible
- Consideration for a specific seating request
- Quick checkout if the need to leave arises
- Allowing outside food or accommodating a special request for the individual on the spectrum
- Understanding that the person may be non-verbal, have difficulty sitting still and making eye contact

When we arrive at the Lamp Liter Inn, we will enter the hotel through the glass doors and walk into the lobby.

In the lobby we will go to the reception desk to check in and tell the staff that our family has arrived.

Sometimes the lobby area can be loud, so I might want to wear headphones to help reduce the noise.

While at the reception desk, my family can ask if we can check out a sensory backpack. If one is available, I can use it during our entire trip. It will include different sensory toys for me.

Depending on which floor our room is on, we may need to go up and down stairs.

There are many different types of hotel rooms. Our room will look similar to the pictures below. It will have one or two beds and a bathroom with a bathtub, shower or both.

If my family and I get hungry, the hotel has a restaurant called The Grille & Bar.

If the pool is open, we can go swimming.

The Lamp Liter Inn has beautiful gardens that I can explore. There are a lot of colorful flowers and plants that I can smell and touch. But please remember to be gentle.

If my family or I have any questions during our stay, we can ask one of the friendly Lamp Liter Inn staff members. They would be happy to help us if we need any assistance.

When our trip is over,
we will pack up our luggage and check out of our hotel room at the reception desk.

If we checked out a sensory backpack we will also return it.
