Visit Visalia offers Guide for Unique Experiences this Valentine's Day
The Heart of Visalia Beats with Romance

Visalia, Calif. (Feb 3, 2021) – Visit Visalia has released its guide for unique Valentine's Day experiences showcasing the best in local food, outdoor adventure and romantic places. With Valentine's Day coinciding with a long weekend, visitors can show their love of the outdoors and their special someone with a weekend getaway. And for those not quite ready to travel, there are virtual options as well. The holiday is about more than just chocolates and roses – it's about spending quality time with those we love.

Visalia is known for having the famous Sequoia & Kings Canyon National Parks in its backyard, but natural charm, welcoming locals and abundance of experiences are why this Central California city is much more than a gateway to the great outdoors. Go on a long hike, take a walking tour of historic downtown, or stroll through the Farmers Market. The long weekend makes it a perfect California road trip destination. If the time isn't right for some to travel now, virtual visits are a great way to get inspiration for a future trip.

Valentine's Day suggestions include romance packages being offered by local hotels including the newly opened boutique property, The Darling Hotel, with its rooftop restaurant overlooking the Sierra Nevada mountains. Recent snows make this a great time for a private guided snowshoe hike in Sequoia National Park among the giant sequoias for personal experience of a lifetime.
